Do You Think For Yourself ?

Or, do you open your mouth like a young bird and gulp down whatever food or medicine may be offered you?

* * * * *

Unless you are an intelligent thinking woman, in need of relief from weakness, nervousness, pain and suffering, then it means much to you that there is one tried and true honest medicine OF KNOWN COMPOSITION, sold by druggists for the cure of woman's ills.

The makers of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, for the cure of weak, nervous, run-down, over-worked, debilitated, pain-racked women, knowing this medicine to be made up of ingredients, every one of which has the strongest possible indorsement of the leading and standard authorities of the several schools of practice, are perfectly willing, and in fact, are only too glad to print, as they do, the formula, or list of ingredients, of which it is composed, in plain English, on every bottle-wrapper.

The formula of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription will bear the most critical examination of medical experts, for it contains no alcohol, narcotics, harmful, or habit-forming drugs, and no agent enters into it that is not highly recommended by the most advanced and leading medical teachers and authorities of their several schools of practice. These authorities recommend the ingredients of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription for the cure of exactly the same ailments for which this world-famed medicine is advised.

No other medicine for woman's ills has any such professional endorsement as Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has received, in the unqualified recommendation of each of its several ingredients by scores of leading medical men of all the schools of practice. Is such an endorsement not worthy of your consideration?

* * * * *

A booklet of ingredients, with numerous authorative profesional endorsements by the leading medical authorities of this country, will be mailed free to any one sending name and address with request for same. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Rheumatism

I have found a tried and tested cure for Rheumatism! Not a remedy that will straighten the distorted limbs of chronic cripples, nor turn bony growths back to flesh again. That is impossible. But I can now surely kill the pains and pangs of this deplorable disease.

In Germany—with a Chemist in the City of Darmstadt—I found the last ingredient with which Dr. Shoop's Rheumatic Remedy was made a perfected, dependable prescription. Without that last ingredient, I successfully treated many, many cases of Rheumatism; but now, at last, it uniformly cures all curable cases of this heretofore much dreaded disease. Those sand-like granular wastes, found in Rheumatic Blood, seem to dissolve and pass away under the action of this remedy as freely as does sugar when added to pure water. And then, when dissolved, these poisonous wastes freely pass from the system, and the cause of Rheumatism is gone forever. There is now no real need—no actual excuse to suffer longer without help. We sell, and in confidence recommend

TAFT ON THE SOLID SOUTH.

Secretary of War Taft yesterday opened the republican campaign in Lexington, Ky., with a discussion of the race problem, general political issues from the southern standpoint and an appeal to Kentuckians to aid the republican party in supporting those principles. Calling attention to what he called the South's lack of representation in the councils of the nation, he declared that this was true "because one single issue has made it the perpetual tail of the democratic party, so that, however small the northern head, it wags that tail. The South has permitted the shadow of an issue that circumstances ought long ago to have removed to bind it to the democratic party no matter what principles or candidates that party adopts."

He called attention to the prosperity of Kentucky's industries and agriculture and expressed the belief that many Kentuckians who favored a protective tariff had blindly voted the democratic ticket because of feeling on the race issue.

Then, taking up the race question, he said:

"I know that the discussion by a northern man of the question is apt to rouse from the southern democrat the objection that he does not understand the question; that he does not know the difficulties of it, and that if he cannot take it up with sympathy, with the attitude of the white man of the south, he had better not take it up at all. On the other hand, he is liable to encounter the criticism of the colored man, who, with a natural sensitiveness, remembering the wrongs and oppressions to which their race had been subjected, resents any attitude which does not involve condemnation of the southern white man or which manifests the slightest consideration for his view. I am not a pessimist with respect to the race question. I am convinced that it is working itself out, and I am convinced that nothing has so much contributed to its gradual solution as the thirteenth, fourteenth and fifteenth amendments."

"The negro is necessary to the south as a laborer—skilled and unskilled. The world over today there is a demand for labor, and were the negro to be withdrawn from the south the difficulties under which agriculture would labor can hardly be overstated. The negro is an American. He has no other country than this, and, called upon to defend it, he lays down his life with the same freedom that the white man sacrifices his.

His best friend—the one that can do most for him, and the one, in many respects, who sympathizes with him most—is the southern white man. He understands his defects. He knows his virtues.

"The fifteenth amendment does not require that every negro should vote. All that it requires is that he should not be excluded from voting because he is a negro. If he lacks educational qualifications property qualifications or any other qualifications that the State may lawfully impose as a rule of eligibility for its voters, then he may be excluded, provided that every one else who lacks similar qualifications is equally excluded. The fifteenth amendment is merely intended to secure him in his political rights from race discrimination by the States. It is not intended to give him affirmative privileges as a member of his race. Its strict enforcement does not involve an amalgamation of the races; has nothing to do with social association or equality. It does not involve so-called negro denomination and to permit the question at this late day—40 years after the war—to control the votes of intelligent men in respect to issues that are living is to indicate lack of sense of proportion, which, I cannot think, will continue to manifest itself in the South.

"If only under the influence of President Roosevelt's administration some of the southern States, including Kentucky, could be led into the republican column in accordance with the real sympathies of the voters of those States, it would be a crowning glory of his administration. As an American citizen and lover of my country I long for the time when the South shall be received again into the councils of the nation and when the people of that section shall resume the influence to which they are entited and which they deny themselves by being frightened at a mere ghost of the past."

Neighbors Got Fooled.

"I was literally coughing myself to death, and had become too weak to leave my bed; and neighbors predicted that I would never leave it alive; but they got fooled, for thanks be to God, I was induced to try Dr. King's New Discovery. It took just four one dollar bottles to completely cure the cough and restore me to good sound health," writes Mrs. Eva Uncapher, of Grovertown, Stark Co., Ind This King of cough and cold cures, and healer of throat and lungs, is guaranteed by E. INSANE PRISONERS REVOLT.

One of the worst outbreaks among the insane prisoners in the history of Clinton prison, at Dannemora, N. Y., occurred Wednesday night. As a result Issac Dubois, one of the inmates, is dead, shot through the heart by a guard.

The insane prisoners were being marshaled for bed, when, at a given signal, they rushed into the two big lower dormitories and slammed the doors in the faces of the guards. Having locked the doors, they proceeded to set about making their escape by smashing the doors and sawing the bars. Some of the less violently insane, however, helped the jailers.

Seeing that the struggling convicts could not be reached through the doors, the guards turned on them from the windows streams of water from the fire hose. This kept them at bay, but did not subdue them. The guards were finally obliged to use rifles and pistols, and it was after midnight before the uprising was quelled. Besides Dubois, who was killed, several other prisoners were seriously wounded.

I will mail you free to prove merit, samples of my Dr. Shoop's Restorative, and my Book on either Dyspepsia, The Heart, or The Kidneys. Trouble of the Stomach, Heart or Kidneys, are merely symptoms of a deeper ailment. Don't make the common error of treating symptons only. Symptom treatment is treating the result of your ailment, and not the cause. Weak Stomach nerves—the inside nerves—means Stomach weakness, always. And the Heart, and Kidneys, as well, have their controlling or inside nerves. Weaken these nerves, and you inevitably have weak vital organs. Here is where Dr. Shoop's Restorative has made its fame. No other remedy even claims to treat the "inside nerves." Also for bloating, biliousness, bad breath or complexion, use Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Write me today for sample and free Book. Dr. Shoop, Racine, Wis. The Restorative sold by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons.

Alexandria Gazette AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

FRIDAY EVENING, AUG. 23, 1907.

THE SOLID SOUTH suffered another thrust last night when Secretary Taft made a speech at Louisville, Ky. As usual, it had about as much effect as the discharging of a crossbow would have had upon a planet. The South is in the democratic column to stay, and all arguments to move it, specious though they may be, are as the bombardment of a fog bank. At any rate the time has not come—nor will it arrive to the present generation—when southern States will cast their lot with the republican party. The secretary in opening the republican campaign in Kentucky, declared it would be the growing glory of the Roosevelt administration to see a southern State in the republican column. Mr. Roosevelt's admirers may imagine they see many stars in his galaxy, but the most powerful telescopes will never reveal that dreamed of by Mr. Taft. The secretary devoted a considerable portion of his speech to the issues, past and present, brought about by the negro race, which seems to lag superfluous on the stage of American politics, the democrats having effectually sidetracked it and the republicans, after using it as a stepladder, have deliberately kicked it over. He also expressed his wish to see the South represented in the councils of the nation, and was profuse in his praises of Booker Washington. Timeo Danios et dona ferentes was the warning uttered by a suspicious ancient. It should be heeded now when the republicans are attempting to make a breach in the walls of the Solid South!

ANOTHER conference at the Department of Justice yesterday is understood to have had for its object the immediate prosecution of some of the men the President has designated as "male factors of great wealth." Messers. Morrison and Kellogg, the government's special counsel in trust prosecutions, were with Attorney General Bonaparte the greater part of the day and left late in the afternoon for New York. The attorney general would make no statement respecting the subject under discussion, but the inference is clear that, after the announcements made by the President, Secretary Taft and by Attorney General Bonaparte himself, that the government intends to put some of the big trust magnates who have been violating the law in jail, and that the Department of Justice must take action in the near future to substantiate these general assertions of the administration.

THE NEW regulations for the manufacture of denatured alcohol will go into effect in September. They are intended to so modify the regulation for licensed distilling as to make it possible for farmers to go into the business. The raw material of manufacture—grain, fruit and vegetable matter—can be assembled at comparatively small cost in farm neighborhoods. Alcohol might be turned out as butter is now turned out from country creameries within certain areas where the cost of transportation would not be prohibitive. That this is practicable is demonstrated by the successful experience of German farmers. It will take time to install the industry; but the demand for a safer liquid fuel than that obtained from petroleum is insistent.

SECRETARY TAFT declares the solid South is a ghost of 40 years ago, and that the South should take a part in the councils of the nation. This is the same old siren song sung every four years by republican presidential candidates who want to catch the votes of the southern delegates to the national convention. Secretary Taft is himself in a Cabinet composed entirely of men taken from without the South.

SEVERAL southern governors seem to be getting ready to ride into United States senatorships on the crest of the prohibition wave. This, says the Philadelphia Record, will be tantamount to leaving their constituencies dry and themselves escaping to a refuge of perpetual wetness.

CARDINAL GIBBONS is quoted in New York as saying he has no use for club-women. Nor has any other sensible man. Club-women should be placed under the ban.

From Washington.

Washington, Aug. 23.

Having been satisfied of the stability of the provisional government set up in Honduras under the presidency of Manuel Davila, the United States government has decided to recognize it as the de facto and de jure government. Senor Ugarte, who has been in this city for some months bearing credentials as the Minister of Honduras to the United States, but who has not heretofore been able to present his papers, was notified today of this action and calling upon Acting Secretary of State Adee was formally received. The new government succeeds that of Manuel Bonilla who engaged in a war with Nicaragua, was beaten, and was forced to flee into exile after the battle of Amapala.

Gen. James B. Aleshire, Quartermaster General, in his report for that department for the fiscal year closed June 30, last. Gen. Aleshire also reports the need of more torpedoes planters as an auxiliary to harbor defense on the Pacific coast and of the Pacific possessions, and describes the installation of wireless telegraphy and submarine signals on a number of transports.

Attack by Raisuli.

Tangier, Aug. 23.—Raisuli, the noted bandit, has begun an attack on Alcazar according to a report received today. It is expected the town will fall into the brigand's hands without much difficulty. It is feared Raisuli may add to the complications in the Moroccan situation by carrying off European residents in the hope of forcing the powers to take action against the Sultan.

Advices today confirm the earlier reports that Raisuli yesterday defeated the royal troops under El Merani the Sultan's uncle, with the assistance of the Kmass tribesmen. The Sultan's forces were routed and scattered leaving the way clear for Raisuli's attack on Alcazar.

The defeat of the royal army may cost the Sultan dearly, as it is sure to encourage the followers of Mouley Hafid, who have proclaimed him Sultan, and are trying to over throw the present ruler.

London, Aug. 23.—All foreign residents of Fez have been ordered to leave that city tomorrow, according to the Tangier correspondent of the Central News. The danger of an outbreak there is so great that it has been thought best, he says, to get all foreigners away from the seat of danger.

The French cruiser Gueydon today shelled the town of Fidellah to the north of Casablanca and all the surrounding villages, destroying all buildings within range. All the huts inside and immediately outside Casablanca have also been burned by the French. One thousand French soldiers from Algeria arrived at Casablanca today.

Fears are entertained here for the safety of Caid Harry MacLean, the Sultan's European military adviser, who has been Raisuli's prisoner for several weeks in view of the bandit's success in defeating the royal troops. It is feared MacLean's surrender is now out of the question.

Free-for-all Fight.

London, Ky., Aug. 23.—In a free-for-all gun fight near the Knox county fair grounds two men were fatally shot and two other men and a woman badly wounded. Constable Lee Campbell, who sought to quell the disturbance, was shot and killed. Edward Smith died of his wounds. John Warren is seriously hurt and may die. Ralph Tuggle, a policeman, is in a serious condition. Warren's mother, with a babe at her breast, was shot through one arm and the member amputated. The only arrest was that of John Bailey, who is charged with having fired the bullet that killed Campbell. Nearly all of the fighters who escaped unharmed have fled into the country.

Knew Disgrace Would Kill.

Vineland, N. J., August 23.—Mrs. Julia Binoffie, grandmother of Joseph Labriola, of Minotola, who was sentenced to die yesterday for the murder of his brother-in-law, John Buglio, but who was recently reprieved by Governor Stokes, died Wednesday, aged 72 years. When her grandson was sentenced the old woman became hysterical and declared in her ravings that she would never live to see the day of his death. Although she was told of the reprieve, she seemed not to comprehend, and expired the day before the fatal time she had set in her mind.

Belvidere, N. J., Aug. 23.—John N. Van Camp, 55 years old, a well-to-do farmer, residing near Blairstown, rode one of his horses to the field yesterday morning to bring his cows from the pasture. He died a few hours afterward.

FOUR of the men entombed in No. 14 mine of the Erie Coal Company at Port Blanchard, Pa., yesterday afternoon are still confined in the mine and but small hope is entertained by the rescuing party that they will be taken out alive. The last indication that the men were alive was at midnight, when the voice of one of them could be distinctly heard. A large force of men have been organized into rescuing parties and are working incessantly to free their fellow workmen.

Each convict in the New York state prison will be furnished with a book in which to keep his accounts, in order that he may know at any time, his exact financial condition, if a recommendation made by Comptroller Glynn today, is carried out. The recent investigations of the management of the prisons showed, it is alleged, a laxity in the care of convicts deposit fund and that the convict was unable to keep track of his account depending entirely on the prison officials to keep it correctly.

A strike against the largest parochial school in the world—St Stanislaus', of Chicago—was called Wednesday by the Carpenters' District Council because of the installation of seats alleged to have been manufactured in a nonunion woodworking establishment, although bearing a label of the Molders' Union. The seats were manufactured at Racine, Wis. The St. Stanislaus School is calculated to seat 4,000 pupils. The school replaces one which was burned. Should nonunion carpenters be put to work on the building, other trades will be called out, it is declared.

Enraged because her husband was harsh to her, Mrs. Levy Gade, of Eufaula, Ala., a bride of two months, waited until he was asleep, and then blew his head off with a shotgun. The tragedy occurred Wednesday night. According to his wife's story, he returned about 11 o'clock and began to scold her, finally striking her. He then laid down and went to sleep. Mrs. Gade says she brooded over the blow until she seemed to hear a voice ordering her to kill the man who would strike his bride. Then she got the gun and shot off his head. Mrs. Gade has not been arrested.

New York Republicans.

New York, Aug. 23.—With the receipt of a commission by Matthew C. Fleming from his former law partner, Charles E. Hughes, now Governor of the State, directing him to investigate "fully" the management and methods of the insurance department headed by Otto Kelsey, the first gun has been fired in battle for control of the delegates to the next republican national convention from New York. It will be a great battle. Ranged on one side is the old guard of the organization, headed by no less a personage than Theodore Roosevelt, who wants the next delegation from this state to go to the national convention uninstructed. If any favored candidate is to be named, he wants the honor for his friend Taft, of Ohio, but he prefers that there be no instructions at all, as it will be easier to swing to the "man of the hour" should that individual loom up in the discard after the claus have gathered. Hughes is saying nothing but is sawing plenty of wood. The wily Benj. B. Odell, twice governor of the state, and a master in the game of politics is backing him. Not openly nor with the governor's public consent, it is true, but still he never loses an opportunity to point to the fact that he considers Hughes the biggest man in the republican party and the one logical candidate for the presidential nomination. Against Hughes one Wm. Barnes, jr., former chairman of the State executive committee; Timothy L. Woodruff, by the grace of Roosevelt, chairman of the State committee; Congressman Herbert Parsons, chairman of the New York county committee; John Raines, president pro tem of the State Senate; Francis Hendricks, "Lou" Payn, George W. Aldridge, and a host of smaller fry of the so-called organization. These are the men who saved Kelsey when the governor tried to have him removed last winter and they will try to block the governor's efforts to get him out through the latter's former partner Fleming.

Bossy's Dignity Was Hurt.

Glassboro, N. J., Aug. 23.—Some children at Cross Keys thought it would be great fun to hitch a cow to a little express wagon Wednesday. They managed to get Bossy into harness in some fashion and all climed into the wagon. The dignity of her cowship was offended, however, and with a kick and snort she started things going, spilled the whole company of little ones and smashed the wagon. A child of Thomas Scott was thrown so violently that serious injury resulted.

Frank Allen, colored, was hanged at Boydton, Mecklenburg county, yesterday for attempted criminal assault. He denied his guilt up to a few days ago, when he made a full confession. The execution took place without excitement. The crime was committed July 1. Allen came up behind Mrs. Harvey Callis near South Hill, who went to pasture to drive up a cow, and attacked her. The ladies of Onancock gave the troops now on duty there a banquet in the town hall on Tuesday evening.

ANOTHER YOUNG MAN GONE WRONG.

Richard H. Lynn, cashier of the American National Bank of Washington, has sworn out a warrant for the arrest of Edwin H. Potts, until a few days ago a trusted clerk of the bank.

Potts is charged with having taking from the bank some time between June 24, 1907, and the time he was forced to resign after an examination of his books, five 100-share certificates of the Erie Railroad.

Inspector Boardman Wednesday obtained information that two blocks of this stock had been deposited in Baltimore, where Potts obtained a loan upon them. President Harper, of the, bank had payment on the certificates stopped today.

The assistant cashier stated that Potts did not secure any money from the bank so far as the books now show.

Detectives Pratt and Hawley visited Hillsboro, Loudoun county, Potts's old home, Wednesday in the hope of finding him, but he was not there, and they learned that he had not been there for some time.

Up to two years ago Potts was employed in a bank in Lecsburg, and was brought to Washington by President Harper, of the American National, and given an important position. At the bank it is stated that Potts at the time of his resignation was under bond of $20,000, so that, in any event, the bank will not lose anything.

Potts's people live near Lynchburg, and stand well. Potts is now believed to be in Arizona or somewhere in the southwest.

It is stated that he recently telegraphed to Baltimore from Tucson, Ariz., and this telegram may result in his capture.

The Market.

Georgetown, Aug. 23.—Wheat 73a78.

Today's Telegraphic News.

Prince Wilhelm at Newport.

Newport, R. I., Aug. 23.—Prince Wilhelm of Sweden has stirred up more trouble in the millionaires summer colony than Newport has known in many seasons. Practically every plutocrat in the fashionable Rhode Island resort wanted to entertain the royal visitor.

There was not enough of the prince, however, to go around, and to make matters worse, Mrs. Stuyvesant Fish secured his acceptance of two social functions.

Of the disappointed ones the Goelets and Vanderbilts are said to be in the angriest frame of mind. The names of neither Mrs. Ogden nor Mrs. Robert Goelet nor Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt appears in the list of guests at the dinner at Crossways given in the prince's honor by Mrs. Fish last night. It is understood they will also be omitted, when the same hostess gives a farewell function to Wilhelm Sunday.

The Goelets and Vanderbilts are not the only ones who think they have been slighted and social and even business reprisals are expected as a sequel to the prince's visit.

Wilhelm is making a tour of the naval war college and naval training and torpedo stations at Fort Adams today. He will lunch with Mr. and Mrs. George Peabody Wetmore this afternoon, take an auto spin through Newport, look at the golf links and receive a lesson in bridge whist, with Mrs. Ogden Mills and give a quiet smoker to a few men in the cabin of the Fylgia later in the day.

Banished from Wurtemburg.

Stuttgart, Germany, Aug. 23.—Escorted to the railway station by his comrades and hailed as the hero of the International Socialistic Congress, now in session here, Quelich, the English delegate, ordered to leave Wurtemburg for referring to the Hague Peace Conference as a "thieves' supper," left here today for England.

Quelich's expulsion offers the first chance of the Congress being brought into harmony. Hitherto the various conflicting interests have done nothing but antagonize each other.

Unless the delegates are brought together a triple split of the international organization is threatened into the "nationalists," led by Herr Rebel, the German socialist leader; the opponents of war, under the French leader, M. Herve, and the trades unionists, led by Ramsey McDonald, an English delegate.

Practically the first real work of the Congress was done today, when the immigration committee submitted a unanimous report against the proposition of a government excluding from its shores any particular race or prohibiting the importation of contract labor. Both these propositions are aimed directly at the United States.

Alleged Murder Plot.

New York, Aug. 23.—The plot began to thicken today in the Staten Island alleged conspiracy to murder Frederick Hulse to secure the $1,500 insurance on his life when his sister-in-law, Miss Marion Carnie, charged by the police with being one of the conspirators, declared that she is herself the victim of a conspiracy.

Through her attorney a statement was made public that twice since Mrs. Hulse died, Hulse has tried to induce her to marry him. His proposal, she asserts, was made because he understood she would come into a fortune of $50,000 in the event of her brother William's death.

George Carnie, who with his sister is held on the charge of plotting Hulse's death, the girl charges was in a conspiracy with Hulse to force her marriage to her brother-in-law.

George, she declares, had been promised a portion of any money Hulse secured through the marriage.

The police on the other hand, assert today, that Marion Carnie loved Hulse and it was the announcement that he intended to marry another woman that led her to plot his death. Miss Carnie has been released, pending a hearing with her brother on Sept. 10, on $2,000 bail.

Striking Drivers in New York.

New York, Aug. 23.—No meat has been delivered since midnight by New York jobbers to retail butchers in the city. A few retailers who own their own wagons sent for supplies, but the available stock was sold out before breakfast time. The striking drivers of packing house delivery wagons have made no attempt to interfere with the retailers' vehicles, but it is expected that the campaign will quickly become more active. The packers announce that they will make an effort today to send out their wagons under guard of mounted policemen. The drivers quit work late yesterday afternoon. Most of them left their wagons standing loaded. The strikers' plan is to call out the stablemen, slaughterers and meat cutters if the packers prove successful in moving wagons. The drivers, 500 in number, are all affiliated with the International Teamsters' Association. They say their hours of work are irregular and too long, that their pay of $17 weekly is inadequate and that they need helpers carrying meat to and from their wagons.

Granted Divorce.

New York, Aug. 23.—Dispatches from Louisville, Ky., today announce that Mrs. Amanda Jungbluth, wife of Carl Jungbluth, an official of the American Tobacco Company, living here, has secured an absolute divorce on the charge of abandonment. Jungbluth came to the United States from Germany, several years ago, and established a wholesale licorice business. He was bought out by the tobacco trust, and came here to take a position with the company. He married the daughter of Captain Thomas Smith, one of the most prominent families of Kentucky, soon after arriving in this country. A year ago Mrs. Jungbluth charged she found she was surrounded by spies, even her servants being employed in that capacity by Jungbluth. Her male relatives were so incensed at this, they are reported to have warned Jungbluth he would do well to keep out of Kentucky.

The Collapse of Secretary Root.

New York, Aug. 23.—The Evening World today says that the physical collapse of Secretary of State Root was due to his efforts to induce President Roosevelt to change his attitude toward the corporations and that, after worrying day and night, and making arguments and appeals to deaf ears he collapsed, at Oyster Bay, August 13. The World says: "It is known that he realized his mind was breaking down under the strain. Intimate friends urged him to resign his post, but a more powerful friend, Thomas F. Ryan, persuaded him that it was no time to abandon the battle with the President. Mr. Ryan believed that in time the great corporation lawyer and Secretary of State would induce Mr. Roosevelt to see a new light. Battered by those contending forces, Mr. Root's mind was giving way. When he arrived at Sagamore Hill, the President was shocked at his appearance."

It is said that when Mr. Root realized that the President was inexorable, he fell back in his chair, crushed and hopeless. He seemed to have lost the power of speech. His wife, who was with Mrs. Roosevelt, was summoned to his side, and from her the President learned that his Secretary of State was in an alarming condition. Mr. Root had confessed to his friends that he would become a paretic if the strain was continued.

Outbreaks in China.

Shanghai, China, Aug. 23.—A serious outbreak has occurred in Ngan-Hwei province, according to advices received here today from Ngan-Kwang. Rebels have taken possession of a small village near Tong-Chin, after slaughtering the local authorities, and burning their residences. It is feared an attack will next be made on Tong-Ching.

The revolutionary movement is spreading rapidly throughout the whole Yantse valley.

A general revolt is being planned and arrangements have been made to start uprisings in numerous cities simultaneously at a given signal. It is feared the present outbreak will precipitate trouble throughout the country. Hubeh and Honan provinces, adjoining Ngan-Hwei, are known to be badly affected with dissention.

Troops are reported to have been ordered from Ngan-King to Tongoching, but it is feared their presence will only aggravate the situation.

Another Postoffice Robbery.

West Springfield, Mass., Aug. 23.—Postoffice robberies which have been of weekly occurrence in New England lately, received a novel addition in Mittineague, yesterday afternoon, when two men got away with $500 in stamps and money by new methods. A well dressed stranger lured Postmaster Edwin Smith outside to designate the best location for a monument, which he said the government had determined to erect near all small postoffices as guide posts to the public. While they were discussing the site and the kind of a shaft Smith preferred, a confederate entered the office and looted the safe unmolested.

Small Defiant.

Chicago, Aug. 23.—"The fight against the telegraph companies will be pushed with renewed vigor from New York as headquarters," says President Small.

Arrangements are being made for the lease of a down town theatre in which strikers will give a vaudeville show. Talent in abundance is said to be in the ranks of the operators. The baseball games netted $2,000 for the strike fund.

From the officers of telegraph companies statements are issued that conditions improve each day and that the service is rapidly approaching a normal state.

The Eighteenth Child.

Biddeford, Me., Aug. 23.—The eighteenth child was born today to Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Lemair, of this city, and President Roosevelt will be notified. A few moment after he descended the report of a shot was heard and he was found lifeless with a bullet hole in his head. His employers insist it is a case of suicide, but the coroner doubts this and has detained five of the dead man's fellow workers.

New York Stock Market.

New York, Aug. 22.—The bull side made a demonstration in the stock market just after the opening, and forced fractional advances in the more active issues. The most important market feature was the depression in Erie, which sold down to 20, against 20¾ at the opening this morning, and at the close yesterday. This decline was considered significant in that it brought the price down to within ¼ of the lowest price at which the stock has sold in a long period. The market after the first hour was generally dull and irregular with strength and activity in a few specialties.

JUDGE THORNTON.

As anticipated, Governor Swanson yesterday evening appointed Mr. J. B. T. Thornton, of Prince William, judge of the Sixteenth judicial circuit, composed of the city of Alexandria and the counties of Alexandria, Fairfax and Prince William to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Judge Charles E. Nicol, and the later resignation of Judge Louis C. Barley, who had been designated to act as judge in Judge Nicol's place. The governor stated that he thought the counties composing the district, everything else being equal, should have the judgeship, in preference to the city, as the city of Alexandria has a corporation judge of its own selection to try all cases there and do all of the administrative work. The announcement of the appointment of Mr. Thornton caused little surprise here as it was generally understood that it would be made in a day or two, but what did cause some surprise was that Governor Swanson did not notify the Alexandria committee, which called upon him on Monday in behalf of Mr. J. M. Johnson, as he had promised them he would do before an appointment was made.

When questioned today a number of Governor Swanson's friends in this city said that they did not know through whose influence Mr. Thornton's appointment was made, but that probably time would bring about developments. Mr. Johnson is out of the city, but his friends say they will carry the fight for him into the legislature when it meets next January. Mr. Thornton will enter upon the discharge of his duties early next month. He is well and favorably known throughout the district and his friends say will make an excellent judge. A short biography of Judge Thornton was published in Wednesday's Gazette.

Advices from Richmond today state that the appointment of Mr. Thornton as judge takes effect September 1st, and the matter could not be delayed, as it was necessary for him to prepare to hold court at that time, as Judge Barley's power as judge expires on the 1st of September. The commission of Judge Thornton was forwarded to him last night.

THE NEGRO ASSAILANT.

William Harris, colored, who was arrested at an early hour yesterday morning on a freight train in the Potomac yards, near this city, left this city in charge of officers from Chesterfield county about five o'clock this morning. The negro is wanted for attempting to assault Miss Lena Roland, living at Chester. The offense was committed Wednesday morning, the details of which were published in yesterday's Gazette.

After Harris fled from Chester a description of him was sent out, and the crew of the freight, knowing that the assailant was at large, was on the lookout for him. When the darkey was discovered on the train he answered the description given by the county officers, and upon being questioned he first denied that he was the man, but finally admitted to Conductor Hutchinson that he was fleeing from Chester, where he had attempted to assault a white girl.

The railway men turned Harris over to Constables Cornell and Pennypacker, of Alexandria county, who brought him to this city and lodged him at police headquarters. Chief Goods telegraphed the Chesterfield county authorities of the arrest, and about noon he received a dispatch from G. E. Robertson, a justice of the peace, stating that officers would be sent at once for him.

Last night Sheriff W. C. Gill, of Chesterfield county; Herbert Cogbill, the county jailer, and G. T. Jarrell, chief of the Swansboro police, arrived here and proceeded to police headquarters, where they promptly identified Harris as the man wanted by them. At an early hour they left for the union passenger station accompanied by Officers Arrington and Nicholson and the prisoner, in charge of the Chesterfield officers, took the early train for Richmond.

Harris will be placed in the Richmond jail, as it is not deemed safe to confine him in Chesterfield county at present.

Harris says he expects to be hanged for his crime, but intimates that he would prefer to be sent to the penitentiary. He says he came from Suffolk.

ROBBED BY A NEGRO.

Mrs. Anna C. White, wife of Mr. B. C. White, formerly of this city, but now occupying apartments at the Lincoln flats, 111 Twelfth street southeast Washington, was attacked by a negro about 9:30 o'clock last as she was entering the building. After a desperate struggle the man wrenched from her grasp a silver purse containing $1.13 and made his escape. As Mrs. White ascended the steps of the apartment house she observed standing on the top step a well-dressed negro. He was rolling a cigarette and apparently was paying little attention to her. She had ascended but two steps when the negro addressed her. "Good evening, Mrs. White," said he doffing his hat. Although she had never seen the man before, Mrs. White returned the salutation with a nod, and was about to pass into the vestibule, when she was seized from behind and jerked violently out on the steps. She attempted to scream, but her assailant clapped his hand over her mouth, and, with one hand around her waist, drew her toward him and in a rough manner took the purse from her hand. Shoving Mrs. White into the vestibule, the negro sprang down the steps and disappeared.

POLICE COURT.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.]

There were but two cases in the Police Court this morning.

Four young men had been arrested charged with appropriating some crabs which belonged to another young man to their own use. One was fined $5, another $2.50 and the other two dismissed.

A young man, who was charged with deserting his wife and baby, was released upon signifying his intention to support them.

UNITED OFFERING FOR 1907.

The united offering of the woman of of the Protestant Episcopal Church in America is an offering which is made every three years when the general convention of the church assembles. Every baptized woman in the church ought to feel it a great privilege to have even a small part in this great "thanks offering," and we, the women of Virginia, should feel a special interest in the united offering at this time. In 1907 there will be celebrated in Richmond the planting of our loved church in this great country of ours, and we should see to it that the offering be worthy of the object and the occasion—a "thank offering" that we of today inherit the priceless privileges of this American church founded by our forefathers 300 years ago. Let no woman neglect the opportunity of uniting in this great "thank offering" to the Father who hath so richly blessed us in all the past years.

We have at interest in the Richmond Saving Bank $2 512,32. A few of the larger churches have small sums on hand not yet reported, but even with this addition we cannot hope for a very large amount.

Will not the women of the church in Virginia, one and all, come to our aid and make special gifts for this great occasion? "If thou has much, give plenteously; if thou hast little, do thy diligence gladly to give of that little."

The offering will be presented in Holy Trinity Church, Richmond, Virginia, October 3rd. The branches of the Woman's Auxiliary and individuals desiring to assist in this good work will send in their offerings before September 25th to

THE WRIGHT CASE.

When discussing the application yesterday for commutation of the sentence to life imprisonment of Joseph Thomas, alias John Wright, now in the jail of Alexandria county, awaiting execution for attempt at criminal assault on Miss Mabel Risley, in September of last year, Governor Swanson said: "I have seen nothing and have heard nothing that warrants me in setting aside the verdict of the jury or the decision of the judge who tried the case and the refusal of the court to interfere to commute the sentence of the man." Mr. James E. Clements, counsel for Wright, has been doing all in his power to have the sentence commuted. The Governor has not fully made up his mind in the matter, but he will do so in a day or two after the man's lawyer has had another chance to present what he thinks has a bearing in the case.

OBITUARY.

The following appreciation, taken from the Southern Churchman, will be read with pleasure by the friends of the late Mrs. W. W. Boyce, who, with her daughter, Mrs. R. W. Gaillard, lived for some years before her death in this city:

Fell asleep in Jesus, on Thursday evening, August 2, 1906, at her residence, Alexandria, Va., MARY E. BOYCE, relict of the late Hon. William Waters Boyce, of South Carolina, in the 86th year of her age.

"In her tongue was the law of kindness."

"Blessed are the pure in heart, for they shall see God."

These verses taken respectively from the Old and New Testaments truly describe the character and guiding principles of one of the most saintly of God's servants it has ever been our privilege to know. In unaffected humility, constant self-forgetfulness, and sweet graciousness of disposition flowing from a heart full of loving devotion to God and man, she reflected, as few rarely do, the spirit of the life of her Divine Master. Born, nurtured and living up to the time of the civil war under the old regime in South Carolina, her beloved native State, and enjoying to the full its social and other advantages, she possessed in herself all the sweetness, charm and grace of the noblest type of womanhood that has ever blessed our modern civilization. Added to this was a mind of more than ordinary culture, well stored with many forms of practical knowledge, especially of plants and flowers, inherited from her father, Dr. George B. Pearson, a well known and prominent physician of Fairfield county, South Carolina, and developed by his wise and loving companionship in their old home, Fonti Flora, in that county.

Her attractive personality, beauty and lovely Christian spirit won her hosts of friends and admirers everywhere, and made her a true helpmeet to her honored husband in the varied duties of an extended public life in South Carolina, as Congressman in Washington during ante-bellum days, and a member of the Confederate Congress during the dark days of civil strife. She bore most uncomplainingly the reverses of fortune that came to her own, as to so many families of the Old South, as a result of the unfavorable arbitrament of war, and bravely took up the duties of life under the new order, and in a new home in Virginia, accepting all things as the will of her Heavenly Father in whom she placed her unfaltering trust. Here her life was a benediction not only in her own home, but in the whole community. The poor and destitute, the sick and those who needed consolation and sympathy never sought her aid and comfort in vain, while her home, even in days of the simplest life, succeeding the ravages of war, was the constant abode of a gracious hospitality. What she and her family did for the religious life and for the Church of Christ in her neighborhood will only be fully known in that day when the good works of His people shall be made manifest to all. Her Saviour's presence was her comfort and strength during the days of her pilgrimage, and now she rejoices in the light of His countenance in that city which hath foundations whose Builder and Maker is God.

All that was mortal of this true servant of Jesus Christ rests beside her loved ones in the old Episcopal churchyard of Winnsboro, S. C.

Alexandria Gazette.

FOUGHT SNAKE ON A ROPE.

Half a dozen laborers and 50 or more convicts at the stone quarries of the Mercer county, N. J., workhouse farm yesterday helplessly watched John Hutchinson, blaster, as he fought for half an hour in midair with a big mountain pilot snake, a poisonous species, that had crawled down a rope ladder to attack him as he was swinging half way to the bottom of a chasm 150 feet in depth, preparing to place a dynamite blast.

None was able to render aid, and Hutchinson was obliged to fight alone until he beat off the reptile with an iron drill in his one hand, while he clung to a rope with the other. He dared not drop the dynamite lest he cause an explosion that would have blown him to pieces, and he was obliged to keep a tight hold on the rope or fall to the bottom of the pit. He slipped the dynamite into his pockets, and as the snake dropped within his reach he struck at it with a small drill.

The swinging of the rope spoiled his aim and he missed. He struck again and again, the snake's progress was impeded and finally it dropped in the pit below. Hutchinson signaled for help and was drawn to the top almost exhausted.

As he stepped back two other pilot snakes struck at him, but his heavy boots blocked their fangs. They were quickly killed.

A Valuable Lesson.

"Six years ago I learned a valuable lesson," writes John Pleasant, of Magnolia, Ind. "I then began taking Dr. King's New Life Pills, and the longer I take them the better I find them." They please everybody. Guaranteey at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggists, 25c.

SPIES IN THE CAMP.

Spies in the ranks of the telegraphers' union are charged by President Small with trying to stir up dissention and break up the strike in Chicago. The strike leader declared yesterday that these secret agents of companies were responsible for stampeding the operators when they first went out and that they afterward tried through sending out fake telegrams to stampede the railroad telegraphers. "Having failed to stampede the railroad operators these dangerous spies are now trying to create trouble over the payment of strike benefits," said President Small. "I have had men watching their movements, and can prove they were interested in stampeding our members when the strike took place two weeks ago. I have cautioned our members against them."

CANDIDATES.

Senator Machen Asks Renomination.

To the Democrats of the Fourteenth Senatorial District:

I hereby announce that I shall seek a renomination as State Senator at the democratic primary September 10th.

For many years it has been the custom in this district to return a Senator for a second term if he so desired, and I trust that a careful scrutiny of my official record will not disclose any reason for violating this custom at this time.

Having been a resident of Alexandria for more than 5 years, and having been for a much longer period associated in business and otherwise with the people of the city, it is natural to suppose that I understand its needs and could serve its interests in the legislature as well as some one who is not a resident and has had no legislative experience. I solicit the generous support of my home city.

Respectfully,
aug16 td LEWIS H. MACHEN.

TO THE VOTERS OF THE 14TH SENATORIAL DISTRICT. I respectfully announce myself a candidate for State Senate in the democratic primary September 10th, 1907. ALEX. J. WEDDERBURN.

FOR STATE SENATE.

To the Democratic voters of the 14th Senatorial district:

I hereby announce myself a candidate for Senator from the 14th Senatorial District of Virginia, subject to the democratic primary to be held on September 10, 1907, and if nominated and elected, I pledge myself to the service of the best interests of the district and State. Very Respectfully,

R. E. THORNTON.

Fairfax, Va., Aug. 17.

TO THE DEMOCRATIC VOTERS OF ALEXANDRIA CITY AND COUNTY:

I respectfully announce that I will be a candidate for re-election to the House of Delegates of Virginia, subject to the decision of the democratic primary to be held on the 10th day of September, 1907. I beg to express my sincere appreciation of the confidence expressed by my fellow citizens in conferring this honor upon me for three successive terms, and to assure them, if re-elected, that, as I have in the past, I will in the future devote my best energies and abilities to represent faithfully the interests of the constituency which has so often honored me.
